

Inclusive Teaching & Learning for EAL learners: Building up your toolkit!

27th June 2018 | 8.45am registration, 9.30am–3.30pm

Organiser
Acklam Grange School

Venue
Middlesbrough Football Club,
Riverside Stadium,
Middlesbrough,
TS3 6RS

Alice Washbourne & Linda Webster

Alice and Linda bring their expertise in supporting EAL learners from years of working with teachers to develop interactive, engaging practice in their classrooms. Alice and Linda are both 'Outstanding Teaching' consultants for Osiris Education so you can be sure that their training is steeped in the best pedagogical approaches mixed with techniques that bring out the best in both teachers and learners. Together, they will offer a day of instantly implementable, practical ideas for you to take back to your classrooms.

- 🔗 Integrating language and content
 - Identifying language learning opportunities across the curriculum
 - Exploring practical strategies to integrate language and content
- 🔗 Using the NASSEA scales to assess EAL learners
 - Developing a greater understanding of the NASSEA scales
 - Using NASSEA scales to inform planning
- 🔗 Setting targets using the NASSEA scales
 - Supporting new to English learners
 - Exploring practical strategies to enable new to English learners to access the curriculum
 - Looking at practical strategies that will accelerate the English language acquisition of new to English learners
- 🔗 Developing the language of more advanced EAL learners
 - Defining the more advanced EAL learner
 - Identifying the specific needs of more advanced EAL learners
 - Looking at practical strategies to develop more advanced EAL learners' academic English skills
- 🔗 Developing a greater understanding of EAL learners and their needs
 - Exploring the distinctiveness of EAL learners
 - Addressing common misconceptions about EAL learners
 - Applying knowledge of the distinctiveness of EAL learners to the classroom context

FREE to Middlesbrough schools | £175 for schools outside of Middlesbrough

Call Kathryn Jones on 01642 277700 or email events@acklamgrange.org.uk